

If you Love me please don't sell me

How do you know I'll have a safe home if you sell me online?

How can you guarantee that I'll be as loved as you loved me if you sell me online?

How do you know that I won't be used for breeding if I'm sold online?

How can you guarantee I won't be immediately sold on again if you sell me online?

Do the right thing by your pet and approach a rehoming centre where the staff can match up your best friend with a suitable home. They will give lifetime support to your pet to make sure they remain happy and healthy for the rest of their lives.
